Āśīrvachanam (Blessings Message)

Om Sri Gurubhyo Namah
Om Namo Nārāyaṇāya

It gives me immense joy to learn of the publication of "Aluva Kochuveedu Stories" and the auspicious gathering of the members of the Kochuveedu family. Such occasions are not merely reunions of relatives but sacred opportunities ordained by the Divine for the renewal of love, gratitude, and dharmic values within the family.

In the Sanātana Dharma, the family (Kutumbam) is revered as a sacred institution where Dharma is nurtured, traditions are preserved, and noble values are passed from one generation to another. Our ancestors are not merely remembered—they continue to bless and guide us through the ideals they lived by and the legacy they have entrusted to us. To honour their memory by preserving family history is itself a noble act of Sevā and an offering of gratitude.

I wholeheartedly appreciate the devoted efforts of all those who have brought forth this beautiful publication and organized this family gathering. May this commemorative volume become a treasured legacy, inspiring the younger generations to cherish their heritage, uphold righteousness, strengthen family bonds, and remain steadfast in faith, humility, and compassion.

May Bhagavān Śrīman Nārāyaṇa, together with Mahālakṣmī, shower His boundless grace upon every member of the Kochuveedu family. May the blessings of the Guru Paramparā and the revered ancestors ever protect your lineage. May every home be filled with peace, harmony, health, prosperity, wisdom, devotion, and spiritual fulfilment. May your family continue to flourish in unity, guided always by Dharma, and become an instrument for Lokasaṅgraha—the welfare of society.

I pray that this sacred gathering deepens the bonds of affection among all members and inspires every generation to live with reverence for God, respect for elders, love for one another, and compassionate service to humanity.

Sarve Janāḥ Sukhino Bhavantu.
Lokāḥ Samastāḥ Sukhino Bhavantu.

With my heartfelt blessings and prayers,

Sri Hari Prasad Swamiji
Sri Vishnu Mohan Foundation
Chennai

Shrihariprasad,
9003202839 | 9282228561| ordinarydragon@gmail.com
7,New Giri Road,TNagar| Chennai 600017

Shriharipraasad,
9003202839 | 9282228561| ordinarydragon@gmail.com
7,New Giri Road,TNagar| Chennai 600017